Basingstoke MP will continue to represent town MILLER RESIGNS FROM CABINET

MARIA Miller announced her resignation as culture secretary on Wednesday after coming under pressure from politicians and the press to step down following allegations regarding her expenses.

But she is expected to stay on as the Member for Basingstoke, despite calls from some local politicians for her to resign from that position as well.

It comes after a report by parliamentary standards commissioner Kathryn Hudson.

The report stated that Ms Miller had over-claimed by £45,000 for expenses towards mortgage payments for her London home.

However, the Commons Standards Committee voted that she need only pay back £5,800.

The committee also said that Ms Miller should apologise to the House of Commons for the matter, which she did last Wednesday.

And despite initially claiming she would not be resigning from her cabinet post, Ms Miller wrote to the Prime Minister yesterday morning to inform him of her decision.

In the letter, she wrote: "It is with great regret that I have decided that I should tender my resignation as a member of the Cabinet."

"It has become clear to me that the present situation has become a distraction from the vital work this government is doing to turn our country around.

"Ensuring the best future for the people of Basingstoke has been my priority throughout the last nine years.

"Whether on the front or back benches of the House of Commons, I will continue this work."

Cllr Paul Harvey, Labour's parliamentary candidate for Basingstoke for next year's general elections, said that Ms Miller had "lost the confidence of the people of Basingstoke".

He said: "I've been door-knocking and talking to people, and there's an awful lot of anger, and a lot of people feeling that Maria Miller has done wrong."

Cllr Harvey, also a borough councillor for Norden, added that he believes Ms Miller should resign as the area's MP as well.

He continued: "There was anticipation and concern of [this issue] before the announcement was made last Thursday, and since then there has been a growing level of anger."

A statement released by the Hampshire Conservative Federation read: "Maria Miller has always delivered for the people of Basingstoke. She is an outstanding MP and has our full support."

£150k funding for popular pool

By Adam Flinn

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

TADLEY Swimming Pool has been awarded £150,000 of National Lottery funding from Sport England's Improvement Fund, to help pay for the refurbishment of changing rooms.

Basingstoke and Deane Community Leisure Trust announced the funding on Tuesday, which will be used for improvements including high efficiency toilets and showers, LED lighting and easy access.

It is hoped that the changes will reduce water usage and energy spending, and will contribute to the borough council's climate change strategy.

Cllr Robert Donnell, cabinet member for environment and climate change, said: "The council is committed to encouraging and supporting residents, groups and businesses to reduce their carbon emissions by 15 per cent by 2017."

"This grant is a terrific result of partnership working to prepare and plan for the impacts of climate change."

"It will also make Tadley Pool a more modern and pleasant local amenity for its many users."

News of the grant comes as the leisure trust reported a three per cent increase in customers at Tadley Swimming Pool since the New Year, compared to 2013.

Combined footfall for Tadley Pool and the Basingstoke Aquadrome is now estimated to be in excess of 1.1million visitors annually.

Hazel Tilbury, chair of the leisure trust, said: "Over the last three years, we have seen a steady increase in the number of visitors coming through the doors of our leisure facilities.

"We think this is partly due to wider economic recovery, but also due to the decision of local residents to spend their money on their health at good value for money, affordable facilities."

"The funding received by Sport England for Tadley Swimming Pool is just one example of our commitment to continuously improving the facilities and services we offer to our customers."

Charles Johnston, property director at Sport England, added: "We know people have a better experience of sport when they have good facilities in which to play."

"This investment will ensure the people of Basingstoke and Deane will be able to develop a sporting habit for life in a first-class, environmentally friendly sports facility."

Free parking for half an hour in town

SHOPPERS and visitors to Basingstoke will be able to park for free for up to 30 minutes in council-owned car parks from Monday.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's Albert Yard, Castons Yard, Feathers Yard, Jacobs Yard, Joices Yard and Central car parks will all feature the new scheme.

It aims to help traders by attracting more people to the area, and to make it easier for customers to use local businesses.

Council-owned car parks in Overton, Kingsclere, Bramley and Whitchurch already offer free parking.

Cllr Cathy Osselton, cabinet member responsible for parking, said: "I hope this will encourage people, who may have been put off by the cost of short-term parking in the past, to support their local shops and businesses."

Pay-and-display tickets will still be required for over half-an-hour's parking, and will be monitored by attendants. For more details of the scheme, go to www.basingstoke.gov.uk/go/parkfree.

Easter fun in Basingstoke

CHILDREN in Basingstoke can take part in an Easter trail around the Top of the Town from Saturday, with chocolate treats on offer to those who can complete it.

The trail starts at The Willis Museum, and participants will be taken on a tour looking for hidden letters in shops and businesses in order to solve an Easter-themed anagram.

It has been organised by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council, and aims to raise awareness of what the area has to offer, as well as keeping youngsters entertained during the holidays.

Cllr Ranil Jayawardena, deputy leader of the council, said: "The event will encourage more people to discover and explore the area, helping to support local businesses now and in the future."

It will be running until Sunday, April 20, and free Easter trail sheets can be picked up from The Willis Museum.

Charity celebrates 10th birthday with art exhibition

BASINGSTOKE-BASED charity Sebastian's Action Trust launched its first art exhibition last Saturday, with Mayor Cllr Dan Putty attending the opening.

It was organised as part of the Trust's 10th anniversary celebrations, and features canvases painted by the children and families that are supported by the charity.

Artworks created by groups of children who have attended art therapy sessions are also on display, with all of them depicting what the Trust means to families.

Jane Gates, CEO of Sebastian's Action Trust, said: "This is a wonderful collection of beautiful art."

"We are very excited about our 10-year anniversary and this collection shows just how important the Trust has become to so many families with children who have life-limiting or serious illness."

The exhibition is being staged on the second floor of The Willis Museum, and is free to look around from 10am to 4pm until May 5.

Councillor quits amid home residency row

A BASINGSTOKE and Deane Borough Councillor who resigned earlier this week has stated that it was not because of pressure from a rival councillor to step down.

Graham Round, Conservative councillor for Baughurst and Tadley North, announced he was stepping down on Monday.

The news came on the same day that UKIP councillor Stephen West, who represents Tadley Central, called for Mr Round's resignation as he wasn't convinced the former councillor

By Adam Flinn

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

was living in the Tadley area.

Cllr West said: "It became a problem because obviously there are issues within Tadley that we councillors have been put, and Graham is conspicuous by his absence."

"He has been incredibly coy about where he lives, he doesn't have a local phone number, and he uses the house he owns in Baughurst just as his mailing address.

"The people of Tadley North and Baughurst deserve to be represented by a local councillor, and not a remote e-councillor on a mobile phone."

But Mr Round, who is stepping down from the council because of increased work commitments, rubbished Cllr West's claims, stating he had decided to resign before Monday morning.

Mr Round added: "I had certainly told people within my group that I would be resigning before then.

"I'm doing so much travelling that it was difficult to balance the diary with overseas trips and council meetings, and I had been a bit lax on being able to attend meetings of late."

"But I was doing my ward work 100 per cent, and people in my ward knew that I worked near Bristol and how to get hold of me."

"I don't know if Stephen was stalking us but he was coming up with stories that we lived in Christian Malford, and yes I did have an interest in a property there, as I have with properties in Basingstoke and in Ireland."

"When I was elected in 2011 I lived in The Hawthorns, Baughurst, and that's where I live today."

An announcement was also made on Monday that Labour councillor for Brighton Hill South David Eyre had stood down.

A notice of vacancy has been issued for both seats, with an election to be held within 35 working days of Monday's announcement.

Man robbed at knifepoint over just £5

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a 57-year-old was threatened with a knife in Basingstoke at the end of last month.

He was walking along Basing View and over the railway bridge into Norn Hill between 10.45pm and 11.05pm on March 31, when he was approached by a man brandishing a knife, who demanded cash.

The victim handed over the money which he had, a little over £5, and the suspect and another man ran off.

Both were described as white and in their late teens. The first was about 5ft 11ins tall with broad shoulders, and his face was covered with a scarf.

He was also wearing a black puffy coat with the hood up and a cap underneath.

The second man was a bit younger than the other, and was of a skinny build.

Since the incident, police have been carrying out extra patrols in the area, and have been offering reassurance to local residents.

Anyone with information about the robbery is asked to call Detective Constable Andy Panter at Basingstoke police station on the non-emergency number 101.

Alternatively, call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Celebrations as job club begins life at new home

A BASINGSTOKE job club celebrated its third birthday last Friday, after its success led to it moving to a new home at Carnival Hall.

The M3 Job Club was set up to support people getting back to work and puts them in touch with businesses that require their skills and experience.

It has so far helped 250 people return to work, and with sessions now attracting more than 35 people a week, Carnival Hall was chosen as a more suitable location earlier this year.

Richard Thayer, the club's founder and chairman, said: "The motives for setting up the M3 Job Club were my personal experiences of redundancy.

"I also needed the motivation and a reason to get up in the morning, whilst giving something back to the community.

"The Job Club conncts employees and employers in a creative and positive way."

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council leader Clive Saunders added: "This club has helped so many people back into work so it's only right that we are supporting them by organising their new bigger place to meet."

It runs every Friday morning from 9am to 12.30pm. For more details, go to www.m3jobclub.co.uk.

Rural crime crackdown for Specials weekend

THE work of 566 Special Constables across Hampshire and the Isle of Wight has been celebrated as part of National Specials Weekend.

Between Friday and Sunday, special constables staged a number of operations across the county to highlight the type of work they do in policing local areas.

In North Hampshire, officers mounted an operation to tackle rural crime, and were out on foot, bicycles and vehicle patrols in villages in the area.

They targeted thefts from cars while carrying out the patrols, as well as providing a visible presence on the streets.

Chief superintendent Dave Powell, force lead for the Special Constabulary, said: "Our Special Constables provide a vital support service for their local policing teams and, more importantly, their communities."

"We have a huge range of expertise as part of our Special Constabulary, from teachers to stay at home mothers and retired businessmen and women, who all have something different to bring to policing."

"I would like to thank them for giving up their free time and then putting on their uniform and helping to make the streets of Hampshire and the Isle of Wight safer."

By Adam Flinn

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

Chief specials officer Phil Keeling said: "All of these officers, no matter what duty they were engaged in, were doing so in their own free time between their work and family lives.

"For this I am truly grateful and proud of the time and effort they all put in to making their communities safer."

Hampshire police and crime commissioner Simon Hayes added: "I highly commend those who give up their time to volunteer as specials for Hampshire Constabulary."

"They are very important members of our extended police family and bring valuable knowledge and experience from their different backgrounds."

"The Special Constabulary makes an important contribution to protecting people and places across Hampshire."

Hats on! Workers raise money for charity

STAFF at Basingstoke Audi have helped to raise a total of £765 for Brain Tumour Research following the charity's annual Wear A Hat Day.

Colborne Garages, who own the Basingstoke Audi branch, took part in the event at each of their dealerships in Hampshire, Hertfordshire and Surrey.

They were inspired by their colleague Jade Tyfer's father Colin, who died of a brain tumour in 2011 after Jade's grandmother had also passed away with the same disease.

Rachael Lacy, group marketing assistant at Colborne Garages, said: "There was plenty of competition amongst us all on Wear A Hat Day to be dressed in the best hat."

"We had fun and at the same time felt we were supporting a very worthy cause."

"I am proud to say that the Colbornes Group raised £765.01 in donations for research into brain tumours, and we are already looking forward to supporting Wear A Hat Day 2015."

Sue Farrington Smith, chief executive of Brain Tumour Research, added: "We are so grateful to everyone who has supported our Wear A Hat Day and, in particular, to Rachael for organising the event at Colborne Garages."

"Their donations will help fund research into an often overlooked form of cancer, which kills more children and adults under the age of 40 than any other."

Appeal for volunteers to care for cats

NATIONAL charity Cats Protection's Basingstoke and District Branch is looking for people to look after unwanted and abandoned cats while they are waiting to find a new owner.

The branch is appealing for volunteers to come forward to look after one or more cats on a short-term basis, until a new home for them is found.

Branch coordinator Hilary Wells said: "Cat fosterers play a vital role in our charity by caring for cats in their own home until a new owner can be found."

"No special equipment is needed but cat fosterers do need to have either a spare room or an area in their garden where a cat pen can be housed."

"Of course, a love of cats and a good working knowledge of cat welfare is a must."

"Offering a temporary home to a cat in need can be an incredibly rewarding experience, and becoming a volunteer for Cats Protection is a great way to meet new friends – both human and feline!"

The charity has 260 volunteer-run branches and 30 adoption centres nationwide, who help look after more than 235,000 cats every year.

Anyone interested in becoming a cat fosterer should contact the branch on 0845 177 1364, or by emailing basingstoke-cats@hotmail.co.uk.

Cost of floods becomes clear

HAMPSHIRE County Council will have spent £68.5million on its response and recovery operation following this winter's floods, the authority said last week.

Long-term costs to repair damaged roads at over 300 locations across the county, as well as flood and coastal defence works, are estimated to cost around £63million.

This is on top of the £5million already spent in the immediate aftermath of the floods on sandbags and clean-up costs.

And it is anticipated that the council will make a claim to government for between £3.5million and £4.5million, added to an £11.5million grant already received for highways maintenance.

Council leader Roy Perry said: "Getting £11.5million is a really helpful first step from government and we'll be bidding for more resources,

By Adam Flinn

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

bearing in mind we estimate that another £25million is needed to fix damaged roads alone.

"We are committed to continuing to fund an enhanced maintenance programme to improve the resilience of our 5,000 miles of roads.

"I am conscious also that a lot of businesses in Hampshire have suffered and we have been exploring what help there is available in that respect, as well as for individual householders.

"We will certainly be making that advice available.

"What's difficult to capture, in monetary terms, is the amount of effort put in by frontline staff from all agencies and those who went above and beyond their roles to respond to the emergencies.

"In recognition of those efforts, the Lord Lieutenant of Hampshire Dame Mary Fagan and I will be hosting an event after Easter.

"We also intend to find an appropriate way to express the county's thanks to the volunteers who were the 'saints and saviours' of flooding within Hampshire and played a tremendous part in supporting their neighbours."

Around 1,000 fallen trees have been removed from roads in recent months, and more than 70,000 sandbags were used across Hampshire.

One hundred council staff and 200 contractors were on deployment around the clock, with highway staff spending a combined total of 13,127 hours on responding to and dealing with the aftermath.

Hotel's clean-up continues

STAFF at Tylney Hall Hotel, near Hook, have been busy restoring the site's gardens to their former glory over the past couple of months, after it was badly affected by the winter weather.

Thirty trees in the hall's 66 acre grounds, including ancient Redwoods, were lost after winds of up to 80mph battered the area.

Estate manager Paul Tattersall and his team of four gardening staff have been carrying out the clean-up operation, with the fallen trees being cut and cleared away.

So far 23 of the 30 trees have been cleared, alongside the gardeners' usual daily tasks and upkeep of the hotel's gardens.

Mark Robinson, general manager at Tylney Hall Hotel, said: "It has been a very tough winter for Paul and his team.

"They have been working around the clock, often in difficult conditions, to keep Tylney Hall's gardens looking as beautiful as ever so our guests can continue to enjoy the natural surroundings we are renowned for.

"It is difficult to sum up exactly how physically challenging and huge a job of this nature can be, and it is testament to Paul and his team's passion that they have managed to clear so many trees so quickly."

Charity golf

GOLFERS can join former England cricketer Shaun Udal for a round at Sandford Springs Golf Course in Kingsclere on June 13, to raise money for Winchester-based charity Brendoncare.

It costs £250 for a team of four to take part in 18 holes, as well as receiving a two-course carvery lunch, entertainment and prizes for the winners.

Funds on the way for Odiham good causes

A PRIMARY school and online directory in Odiham could be set to benefit from £5,000 of funding, donated by a Southern Co-operative community support scheme.

Buryfields Infant School and inOdiham are hoping to receive £2,500 each.

However, it will depend on the success of Odiham's Community Support Card (CSC) scheme over the next year.

Customers can apply for the free card, which will be swiped every time they shop in Co-operative stores.

The more times the cards are swiped, the more money will be raised and the good causes will be given their funding quicker.

Francis Howard, chair of inOdiham, said: "CSC funds will enable everyone to enjoy a more beautiful Odiham."

"As part of inOdiham's ongoing plans to put flowers and plants in abundance in public spaces, the money will help provide more planters in the High Street, and bulbs for mass planting on roadside and path verges."

"Since everyone will share the benefit, we hope that everyone will support us by using their community card whenever they shop at the Southern Co-operative store in the High Street."

Louise Hancock, treasurer of Buryfields Infant School

PTA, said: "It's great to have this support from the Southern Co-operative, which will make a significant difference to the school."

"The PTA is currently working hard to raise funds to contribute to the development of the external grounds of the school."

"With these enhanced facilities we hope to continue to grow confidence in our children, as well as provide learning opportunities in a fun, stimulating and creative environment."

"It's a real community school and we benefit from lots of local support, so I really hope everyone will get behind this scheme to reach our £2,500 goal."

Southern Co-operative's retail business manager Gurt Combrink added: "We rely on customer support for our CSC scheme to success, but it doesn't cost them a penny."

"These are great local causes that the Southern Co-operative is pleased to be able to support, and which will directly help the local area."

"Our panel of members was unanimous in their support for both the school and inOdiham."

Milestone mission for the air ambulance

HAMPSHIRE and Isle of Wight Air Ambulance (HIOWAA) has completed its 5,000th mission, as they flew to the aid of an elderly man last Thursday.

Crew members marked the occasion with a gathering in Southampton, having reached the milestone number after starting missions on July 1, 2007.

The achievement coincides with the appointment of Dr David Sutton, who takes up the newly created role of clinical governance lead.

HIOWAA patron Alisa Montagu said: "I have seen outstanding progress within such a young charity, and this milestone is another remarkable achievement."

I am very proud to be patron of such a talented and dedicated team of professionals who provide this life-saving service to the people of Hampshire and the Isle of Wight."

Dr Sutton added: "Having flown with HIOWAA as a flight doctor since the early days of 2008, I am delighted to have been offered the new post of clinical governance lead."

This is a unique opportunity to build on our experience over 5,000 missions, and work alongside my medical, paramedic, pilot and charity colleagues to continue the development of our life-saving service.

It is simply a privilege to be involved."

Police hope alcohol duty change will cut crime

NEW legislation that saw government banning the sale of alcohol below the cost of duty plus VAT has been welcomed by Hampshire Constabulary.

It was introduced nationwide last Sunday, and prevents businesses from selling alcohol at heavily discounted prices in a bid to reduce excessive consumption, associated health issues and related crime.

Businesses must ensure that prices are accurate on shelves, barcodes, menus and price lists, and the legislation will supersede prices printed onto products.

Supt Stuart Murray said: "We welcome this new legislation and the impact we anticipate that it will have on crime figures across the force area."

"Issues like anti-social behaviour and underage drinking are a big concern for communities across Hampshire, and this new pricing structure for alcohol will help to address some of them at the point of sale."

"We will be active in enforcing the legislation across the force area and will be actively engaging with licensees and partner agencies to ensure that it is adhered to."

Businesses will be able to continue selling bulk items of alcohol, but each will need to be sold above the aggregate of the permitted price of each product in it.

Legislation will be enforced by local authorities, Trading Standards and the police.

Help needed for charity's Big Collection

A NATIONAL charity is appealing for a volunteer in Basingstoke and Hook to help coordinate a collection weekend at their local branch of Tesco.

Diabetes UK is recruiting 300 team leader volunteers across the UK, and is looking for someone to help with their efforts in North Hampshire.

The Big Collection weekend is scheduled to take place in Tesco stores between June 13 and 15, with the aim of raising hundreds of thousands of pounds to help those suffering with diabetes in the UK.

Volunteers will help organise the Big Collection by working with Diabetes UK staff at their South East regional office and the Basingstoke and Hook branches of Tesco.

They will also be tasked with motivating a team of collection volunteers.

Jill Steaton, Diabetes UK regional manager for the South East, said: "We are proud that nine out of 10 people who volunteered last year said they would again, which means they must have enjoyed it."

"We are looking for a motivated, approachable and organised team leader volunteer with a desire to help raise lots of money for a fantastic cause."

"The weekend takes place at the end of Diabetes Week, and it is a great way to inform customers about diabetes while raising money for the charity."

"We look forward to another fun weekend at the next collection in June."

Youngsters get a music adventure

YOUNG patients at a Basingstoke care home were treated to an afternoon of music last week, as part of a national programme run by arts charity Create.

Children and teenagers at the Firvale Respite Unit, who suffer from severe learning difficulties, were treated to the charity's interactive show ArtsAdventures, designed to enhance the patients' quality of life.

Youngsters joined in using different instruments, creating original sounds and melodies as well as recreating famous tunes.

As well as taking place at Firvale, the programme was also recently staged in Berkshire and Oxfordshire at nine different hospitals, hospices and respite centres.

Nicky Goulder, Create's co-founder and chief executive, said: "I am delighted that we have been able to take ArtsAdventures to these hospices, hospitals and beyond."

"ArtsAdventures enables the children to explore their creativity and grow in self-confidence, as well as distracting them from their illnesses and disabilities."

"We want them to be able to have fun together at a difficult time in their life."

"It is our huge privilege to be able to give them this opportunity."

As well as helping the young patients, ArtsAdventures was also designed to help their families, as well as centre staff who look after them, and were invited to join in.

Advanced Digital Imaging

OCT will give accurate diagnosis:

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
Are you short sighted?
Do you have diabetes?
Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly.*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details.

This assessment of your eyes using OCT Technology will give us the most accurate diagnosis possible and help us give you the best advice to protect your sight and the health of your eyes.

Gardening...? It's child's play!

When you start this summer's gardening why not recruit some little helpers?

IF THE weather is fine this Easter, (and it's beginning to look like it might be), many parents will be wanting to sort out their gardens - and hopefully encouraging their children to give them a hand along the way.

Certainly, with National Gardening Week (April 14-20) on its way too - a scheme launched three years ago by the RHS to celebrate gardening with nationwide events - there really is no excuse not to get your little ones outdoors.

Andrea Fowler, horticultural educator at RHS Garden Wisley, points out that attracting wildlife, seed-sowing and vegetable-

By Hannah Stephenson

news@basingstokeobserver.co.uk

growing are all sources of inspiration to young gardeners.

"Spring is definitely here so we can be seed-sowing and planting in earnest. If you just want to get the children outside do an Easter egg hunt in the garden - there are also Easter holiday activities at all four RHS gardens over the holidays."

"If you're sowing seeds with children, sow something that's going to spark their imagination. Plant flower seeds which children will be excited about, like calendula - there's a calendula called 'Porcupine' which is an extra spiky pot marigold.

"If you're growing veg with children, have a go with 'Pink Fir Apple' potatoes (a main-crop variety with knobbly pink skinned tubers of butter yellow, waxy flesh) or purple potatoes, purple beans and yellow tomatoes, which will get them interested."

Attracting wildlife into the garden will also engage the children, so help them build a mini-beast hotel (although autumn can be a better time to do this when wildlife is looking to hibernate).

A simple bug hotel can be made from a collection of hollow stems packed into a plastic bottle with the end cut off. Several hotels could be placed in different positions such as on the ground among vegetation, fixed on top of a post, next to a wall, half way up a hedge, in a tree, under a bird table. Grander bug hotels can be made by piling up a variety of materials into a tower, or making a wooden frame with a series of compartments and packing these with different fillings.

Remember rotting wood is both a home and source of food for various beetle grubs and a vast army of other mini-beasts, which in turn make a tasty snack for birds, hedgehogs and frogs, so leave an area of the garden wild and build a log pile with the children.

"Children also love worms. If you are working in the garden let them dig with a trowel and they'll love it..."

You could also help your children make a bird cake, using fat, good quality wild birdseed, raisins, peanuts and grated cheese. Just leave the fat in a warm place to soften, put the other ingredients into a bowl, chop the fat into small pieces and add to the mixture, mixing it together using fingers or a spoon. Put the mixture into a yoghurt pot to hang from your bird table or roll into balls to place on it.

"We need to get the next generation inspired by gardening," Fowler says.

And there's no time like the present to do so.

- Getting kids interested in gardening helps them connect with nature. Photos: PA Photo/RHS.

A night of jazz at the Phoenix

THE Esmond Clements Trio come to Bordon as part of the Phoenix Jazz series, coming to East Hampshire tomorrow evening.

Esmond is a well-respected jazz pianist who has performed for many years in the UK and Europe, and will be joined by trombone player Edwin Baker and veteran bass player Phil Berry.

It starts at 8pm at the Bordon Phoenix Theatre. Go to www.phoenixarts.co.uk or call 01420 472664 for more details.

Have a go at carving animals

CHILDREN and adults are being invited to carve creative creatures at the Basingstoke Discovery Centre, for a one-off workshop this weekend.

Professional fruit carvers Carving Magic will be teaching visitors how to carve a penguin from an aubergine, with plenty of other animals and fruits for creative visitors to have a go at making.

It costs £10 for the one-hour workshop from 10am. For more information, call 01256 478670 or go to www.hants.gov.uk/bpsc.

POP rock and soul group The Christians make their second trip to Basingstoke inside six months, with a new show at The Haymarket on Saturday evening.

The band performed at the Anvil in November alongside fellow '80s groups Go West and Hue and Cry, but return

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk with their own show featuring songs both new and old.

It comes as the group are busy recording their sixth studio album, following on from the release of 'Speed of Life' in 2012.

"We don't want to bombard the audience with new tracks at this show, but we can sneak a couple in through the set," said lead singer Garry Christian.

"People like to hear the older ones, as they can reminisce and think 'ah, I remember that'."

"I always say to them before we do any of the tracks that this is a new song, so if you fancy a drink the bar's open! It normally goes down pretty well actually."

As well as new material, The Christians will be playing some of their well-known hits, including 'Forgotten Town', 'Harvest for the World' and 'Born Again'.

Garry is the only group member remaining from the original '80s line-up, and is now accompanied by lead guitarist Joey Ankrah, Neil Griffiths on acoustic guitar, Cliff Watson on bass, drummer Lionel Duke and keyboard player Mike Triggs in the band.

"At the moment we're working on the new album, and so far we've got about 18 tracks," Garry added.

"When we've got them to a certain level, we'll decide what 10 or 12 tracks we'll put on the album itself."

"But they're all sounding great so it's difficult to choose really. It's a good position to be in."

Saturday's show starts at 7.30pm, and tickets cost £21. For more information and to book, go to www.anvilarts.org.uk or call the box office on 01256 844244.

'A real musical challenge'

OVER 100 children aged between seven and 14 will bring their musical talent to The Anvil on Sunday afternoon, with the National Children's Orchestras (NCO) of Great Britain.

They will perform music by Tchaikovsky, Wagner and Dukas during their performance, as well as more contemporary pieces such as the score to Pirates of the Caribbean.

Children begin performing with the orchestra from a young age, and are chosen to play through extensive auditions that are held annually.

Sarah Derbyshire, managing director of the NCO, is looking forward to listening to the orchestra as they return to The Anvil this weekend.

She said: "We love going there, and I think particularly performing there on a Sunday afternoon seems to work well in the area.

"We've had good audiences there in the past, and we're very much looking forward to coming again."

What music the children perform at each individual orchestra is decided in advance on the basis of how strong the collective group are, and what level of pieces they would be able to tackle.

"That's really a decision made by our principal director of music, Roger Clarkson," Sarah added.

"He's always interested in presenting these young talented musicians with a real musical challenge, and also thinking about what their audiences are going to enjoy hearing.

"This concert has a family focus, because it's on a Sunday afternoon, so that's been another consideration that Roger's had in mind when putting the programme together.

"These pieces will appeal to a broad age range, and he'll be doing some little introductions and this sort of thing during the afternoon, so people of all ages will find it an accessible programme."

The show starts at 3pm, and tickets start from £11.

For further details or to book tickets, visit The Anvil website www.anvilarts.org.uk or call the box office on 01256 844244.

Fiat's retro rag-top city car gets 'sporty'

FIAT'S re-interpretation of its iconic 1960s 500 model met huge acclaim when it launched in 2007. The 500C, launched in 2009, shares the chic retro looks of the hatch, but features a full length electrically retractable fabric roof.

The design is faithful to the rear-engined 1950s original, in that it retains the roof pillars and although not a true convertible, it's hard not to be impressed by this clever compromise.

REVIEW: Fiat 500S Convertible
By Philip Shoulder
@writeonmotoring

This sportier 'S' trim is denoted by larger 16 inch alloy wheels, satin chrome trim along with the body coloured side skirts and spoiler. Inside there's a skilful blend of retro looks and modern functionality, with a sporty twist thanks to the chunky flat-bottomed steering wheel, red gear knob and embroidered logos on the bolstered sports seats.

Otherwise it's the usual 500 fair: key focal points being the large main dial, incorporating speedometer, rev counter, fuel, and temperature gauges. Heater and stereo controls are positioned high on the dash, within easy reach of the driver.

A good driving position is combined with comfortable supportive seats. Cabin is cosy but not cramped and there's enough headroom for six-footers front and rear. At 185 litres seats up and 520 litres seats down, the boot is well off class best and the aperture is a bit restricted.

Out of all the Fiat 500 engine options (a 68 bhp 1.2 litre and 94 bhp 1.3 litre diesel), this 0.9 litre two-cylinder TwinAir is without doubt the most intriguing. A combination of turbo charging, dedicated valve management and high combustion achieved from Fiat's MultiAir technology, means the diminutive 875cc engine pumps out a healthy 84 bhp at 5500 rpm and 145Nm at 2000rpm, to the tune of a distinctive off-beat thrum, which seems to really suit the car's cheeky character.

It certainly feels brisk, despite the modest performance figures (0-62 mph in 11 seconds and 107 mph top speed). And it has incredibly low CO2 emissions of just 95g/km, along with 70.6

mpg fuel economy (combined cycle), although expect real-world figures to be nearer the 45 mpg mark.

The 500S strikes an appealing balance of sportiness and comfort; bigger wheels, slightly firmer suspension and chunkier steering wheel all add up to make this 500 more engaging on a twisty B-road, but there isn't the crashy brittleness that afflicts the more hardcore Abarth variants.

For such a small car refinement levels are good at lower speeds, although some external noise does seep in through the soft-top. At the flick of a switch (up to speeds of 37mph) the 500S Convertible goes from city car to drop-top, adding another dimension of motoring pleasure, although some practicality and rear vision is lost.

Verdict:

Although not without its flaws, the 500S Convertible has personality and desirability in spades; as well it should for nearly £16,000. Where it scores is offering the duality of city car motoring, with the fun factor of a small convertible.

Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.

That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Taking care of your motor

FASTFIT Service Centre is celebrating its tenth anniversary at Unit One, Moniton Trading Estate in West Ham Lane.

And the independent automotive specialist is proud to be expanding in a bid to give its customers exactly what they want. "Everything your car needs is here under one roof", explained manager Byron Lewis who, like his team of experts, has spent a lifetime in the automotive industry.

He added: At Fastfit we offer hourly rates which are some of the best in Basingstoke. No job is beyond us and we are quite simply a one-stop shop and more besides. Whether it's an entire engine overhaul or just tweaking the brakes, we will do it, and do it well."

The business is continually expanding and includes a new mobile tyre fitting and home start service. A comprehensive diagnostic service can also be provided and the business issues many dealer level tools ranging from Ford, Jaguar to Land Rover and Volkswagen.

Fastfit offers everything from MOTs and minor servicing to major repairs and complex engine work.

More complex issues include an Engine Control Unit (ECU) remapping service which makes the vehicle more responsive and smoother to driver. In these tough times, it also slightly increases the miles-per-gallon!

Fastfit Service Centre also stocks a range of budget or performance tyres and it can also custom build stainless steel exhaust systems.

"Come and give us a try. You won't be disappointed," concluded Byron.

Look at our Opening Times!

What our customers think

• My car had been taken to three different repair centres which was suffering from low power none of them diagnosed the problem. I took it to these guys for a remap

and full exhaust in the hopes it would fix it.

It was better but Byron still thought if wasn't right so spent another couple of hours diagnosing it!

He didn't charge me extra and even finished after they should of closed. You just don't get that kind of service these days. Amazing!

Cheers,
Clive Baldwin

• Great service from the whole of the Fast Fit team. They know what they are talking about and are happy to help with any query.

I wanted something activated on my car that was not activated at the factory. A dealer wanted upwards of £100 to do the job, I contacted Fast Fit and they have the same Dealer Software. Done the job quick and for a third of the price!

These guys definitely know what they're talking about and I would recommend them to anyone!

Chris H

• Excellent service! Very polite and great value for money prices! I will recommend to friends and family. If you need your car repaired at the right price don't look any further.

Bison celebrate best ever season after play-off win

Rose hopes for major success

NORTH Hampshire golfer and world number eight Justin Rose begins his first round at the Masters this evening.

Rose will play alongside Phil Mickelson and Ernie Els in the first two rounds as he hopes for a second major win to follow up his US Open success at Merion Golf Club, Pennsylvania, in June last year.

He has made five appearances so far this year, his best result being tied for eighth place at last month's Valspar Championship at Florida's Innisbrook Resort.

Rose was one of six players to finish on two under par on March 16, five shots behind Australian John Senden.

At his last tournament, the Arnold Palmer Invitational at Bay Hill from March 20-23, Rose missed the cut after posting rounds of 71 and 79 to end six over par.

Rose's best result at the Masters came in 2007 when he finished in tied fifth on four over par, having been leading after the first round.

Last year Rose ended the weekend in a tie for 25th alongside other major champions including Rory McIlroy, Jim Furyk and Charl Schwartzel on two over par, 11 shots behind tournament winner and current world number two Adam Scott.

BASINGSTOKE Bison were crowned as the 2014 English Ice Hockey Premier League champions in Coventry on Sunday, following a 5-3 win against Manchester Phoenix.

Bison had beaten Guildford Flames 5-2 on Saturday to make the final thanks to goals from Tomas Karpov, Nicky Chinn, Miroslav Vantroba, Joe Rand and Joe Greener.

The first period of Sunday's match saw a combined 19 shots from the two teams, but the game remained goalless going into the break.

It was Phoenix who broke the deadlock through Robin Kovar, who tapped in on a powerplay at 28:47.

Ciaran Long equalised for Bison just half a minute later, and the Herd were soon ahead as Joe Rand scored a penalty shot at 31:36.

Bison went into the final period in the lead, but Phoenix were once again level as James Archer converted on a powerplay at 42:30, assisted by František Bakrlik and Tony Hand.

Joe Baird put the Herd ahead once again as his shot sailed through a crowd of players to beat Phoenix netminder Steve Fone at the far post.

Player-manager Doug Sheppard then fed Karpov as he blasted the puck over Fone's glove with 10 minutes remaining to give Bison a two-goal advantage.

Phoenix were able to pull a goal back at 56:49 to make for a nervy ending, and they threw everything they had at Sheppard's men to try and find an elusive equaliser.

But it was to no avail, and Aaron Connolly was able to grab an empty net goal in the dying seconds to give Bison a 5-3 win, and complete the EPL cup and playoff double.

The win capped Bison's best ever season in the EPL, after they finished second in the league last month.

Sport Bites

'Stoke in danger of going down

BASINGSTOKE RFC have just one game remaining to try and stay in the National League 3 London and South East, after slipping into the relegation zone last Saturday.

'Stoke lost 41-32 away to Tonbridge Juddians, despite Ryan Davis, David Byett and Jobi Kockanowski scoring tries for the visitors.

The result was even more disappointing for 'Stoke as relegation rivals Barnes were able to move three points ahead as they beat Guernsey 31-22.

'Stoke's final league game of the season takes place at home to third-placed East Grinstead on Saturday, in what is a must-win game for Basingstoke if they want to avoid relegation.

Their fate will also depend on the outcome of Barnes' final match, as they take on 10th-placed Westcombe Park at the weekend.

Late goals give New Inn the cup

THE Basingstoke A Cup Final was decided last Thursday evening, as New Inn overcame Tadley Calleva A by winning 2-0 after extra time.

It took until the 20th minute of extra time for the deadlock to be broken.

New Inn captain Richard Kalwarzck smashed a shot into the top corner, with Matt Bennett adding a second in the dying moments of the match.

Both teams had numerous chances during the tie, but it was the higher-ranked New Inn who eventually came out on top.

Wintney and Calleva on top form while Whitchurch struggle

HARTLEY Wintney returned to winning ways in the Combined Counties Premier league on Tuesday night, with a 2-1 away win at Hanworth Villa.

Tuesday's win came after a

3-2 defeat at Frimley Green last Thursday and Saturday's 2-1 loss versus Wembley.

Wintney are now seventh in the league with eight games remaining, and are back in action this weekend away to Badshot Lea.

BRISTOW URGES TOWN REACTION

Winless run extends to three games after Chelmsford snatch late victory

MANAGER Jason Bristow is calling on his players to restore some pride after Basingstoke Town suffered a last gasp 3-2 defeat at home to Chelmsford City on Tuesday night.

Michael Cheek's stoppage time effort condemned the Dragons to their seventh home defeat of the season, extending their winless run to three games.

A Christian Smith own goal had given Town the lead on 10 minutes, but the midfielder soon made amends by converting from the spot for 1-1.

Liam Enver-Marum restored Basingstoke's lead before Cheek's late brace handed the visitors victory.

The Dragons are currently 14th in the Skrill South table, eight points above the relegation zone and 11 adrift of the play-offs.

Bristow is now calling for a reaction, despite the daunting task of playing their six remaining league games in the space of 14 days.

"We've got to restore a bit of pride in our last few performances," he said.

"We've got to show people that we really want to be here and play for this football club, it's important that we do that."

"Every team has got a lot of games to play, but we look tired.

"Mentally we're tired as well but we have got to get through that."

"There is still a very busy few weeks to go and we have got to find something within ourselves to come through it with a good amount of points."

Bristow admitted that with such a tight schedule over the next fortnight, it will be difficult to train twice a week.

"We play Saturday, Tuesday, then Friday, Monday, Wednesday and Saturday so it is very difficult to get sessions in," he said.

"You've got to think about the players and their recovery time and it's difficult to work on things in between games."

"Everyone is in the same boat and it is those that are coping with it the best that are getting the most success."

Basingstoke welcome Bishops Stortford to the Camrose this Saturday but will be without defender David Ray, who will miss the rest of the season with an achilles injury, while midfielder Simon Dunn is out.
